

0% Financing. 100% HP.

36 months, 0% lease financing¹

For the life of your technology. For the good of your business

The economy is taking its toll on many companies. Large and small companies alike are finding it harder to make the financial commitments needed to enhance or even maintain IT infrastructures. While investing in a downturn might seem counterintuitive, cutting-back or staying with the status quo may result in higher overall IT costs, reduced business performance and lower customer satisfaction.

HP Financial Services can help in a way that you may not have considered. We can help you invest in your business while preserving precious capital. For a limited time only, get the technology your business needs and the flexibility and affordability you deserve with our 36 months, 0% lease rate.
